ADMINISTRATIVE BUSINESS:

Swear In Lisa Wood as a Board Member

Read and Approve the March 27, 2001 minutes.

PENDING BUSINESS:

Radiology Law and Rule Examination Review

DECISIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Mr. Ormond conducted the swearing in of Ms. Wood. Mr. Ormond briefly reviewed the duties of a board member. The board welcomed Ms. Wood.

Ms. Parkinson made a motion to approve the minutes as read. Ms. McKone seconded the motion. The board vote was unanimous.

Mr. Ormond reviewed and discussed a letter to the board from the Division Assistant Director, Laura Poe, regarding the law and rule examination and stated that few questions were specific to radiology. Ms. Poe and Mr. Ormond recommended the examination be eliminated completely.

Ms. Wood made a motion to eliminate the law and rule examination. Dr. Kimball seconded the motion. The board vote was unanimous.

Stipulation and Order

The board had requested additional information regarding the surrender of license by Carl Jones.

The investigator, Shane Tiernan, was unable to attend the meeting. The board secretary stated that Mr. Tiernan requested the board be notified that Mr. Jones had failed to disclose pertinent information on the radiology practical technology application and again on the radiology technologist application. Due to the circumstances, Mr. Jones surrendered the license. No action taken.

NEW BUSINESS:

APPOINTMENTS:

9:15 A.M.

Jolene Nosack

Ms. Nosack failed to appear for the probationary interview.

Ms. Wood made a motion to terminate Ms. Nosack's probation and for the division to conduct an audit of the required continuing education when the license is renewed in 2003. Ms. McKone seconded the motion. The board vote was unanimous.

9:30 A.M.

Richard Chavez

Mr. Chavez fail to appear for the appointment to discuss the yes answer on the qualifying questionnaire.

The board reviewed Mr. Chavez application and the explanation of the yes answer. The requested that Mr. Chavez submit a complete FBI criminal history and current documentation from the counselor regarding the results of the counseling for the board to review at the next scheduled board meeting. The board also requested Mr. Chavez again be invited to attend the next board meeting to discuss the yes answer and to be prepared to discuss current employment.

CORRESPONDENCE:

Division Correspondence

The board reviewed Dr. Kim C. Bertin's letter regarding appropriate programs presented by the Utah Society of Radiologic Technologists to use for continuing education credit and Mr. Fairhurst's response regarding the rule of qualified professional education being relevant to the licensee's professional practice. No action taken.

ARRT Correspondence

The board reviewed the following information from ARRT:

1. Information regarding the development of an ARRT bone densitometry examination. No action taken.
2. The ARRT Educator newsletter. Board members requested copies be sent to them.
